RE: Letter of Instruction - Forensic Document Examination

Matter: [Case Name/Reference Number]

Subject: Authentication of Prenuptial Agreement dated [Date of Agreement]

Dear [Expert Name],

I am writing to formally instruct you to act as an independent forensic document examiner in the above-referenced matter. We require your professional opinion regarding the authenticity of signatures found on a contested Prenuptial Agreement.

1. Background

The validity of the Prenuptial Agreement signed by [Party A Name] and [Party B Name] is currently in dispute. One party alleges that the signature appearing on the document is not genuine.

2. Documents Provided for Examination

I have enclosed the following documents for your analysis:

- Questioned Document (Exhibit A): The original/certified copy of the Prenuptial Agreement dated [Date], specifically the signature page bearing the name [Name of Party in question].
- Known Samples/Exemplars (Exhibit B): [Number] original documents containing the verified signatures of [Name of Party], including [list documents, e.g., passports, bank checks, or contemporaneous correspondence].

3. Scope of Work

You are requested to perform a detailed forensic examination to determine:

- Whether the signature on Exhibit A was authored by the same individual who provided the signatures in Exhibit B.
- Whether there are any signs of forgery, tracing, or digital manipulation on the Questioned Document.

- Any other findings relevant to the integrity of the handwriting on the document.

4. Reporting Requirements

Please provide a formal written report detailing your methodology, findings, and your expert conclusion. Your report should be prepared in accordance with [Local Court Rules/Rules of Evidence] for expert testimony.

5. Timeline and Fees

Please provide an estimate of your fees for this examination and the expected date of completion. We request the final report no later than [Deadline Date].

Please confirm receipt of these instructions and the enclosed documents.

Yours sincerely,

[Your Signature]
