RE: Rejection of Proposed Pro Rata Distribution - [Account/Case Number]

Dear [Recipient Name],

I am writing to formally acknowledge receipt of your proposal dated [Date of Proposal] regarding the pro rata distribution of [Assets/Funds/Settlement] in the matter of [Reference Name or Case Number].

After a thorough review of the terms, I am writing to inform you that I cannot accept the proposed distribution as currently outlined. My rejection is based on the following grounds:

- [Reason 1: e.g., Incorrect calculation of total claim amount]
- [Reason 2: e.g., Disproportionate allocation compared to priority creditors]
- [Reason 3: e.g., Failure to account for accrued interest or specific legal entitlements]

I believe that a fair distribution should instead [State preferred outcome or adjustment]. I am open to discussing an amended proposal that more accurately reflects the legal and contractual obligations owed.

Please provide an updated distribution schedule or contact me by [Date] to discuss this matter further. Failure to reach an equitable agreement may result in [mention potential next steps, such as formal mediation or legal action].

I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,

[Your Signature]
