RE: Letter of Protection

Client/Plaintiff: [Client Name]

Claim/Case Number: [Case Number]

Date of Incident: [Date of Incident]

To Whom It May Concern:

This office represents [Client Name] in connection with a legal claim arising from the incident noted above. Our client has entered into an agreement with your company for pre-settlement funding in the amount of $[Amount].

This letter serves as a Letter of Protection (LOP) regarding the aforementioned funding. We hereby acknowledge your lien against any settlement, judgment, or recovery obtained on behalf of our client. We agree to withhold and pay directly to [Funding Company Name] the total amount owed (principal plus accrued interest/fees) from the net proceeds of any recovery, prior to any distribution to the client.

This agreement is subject to the following conditions:

- Payment is contingent upon the successful recovery of funds through settlement or judgment.
- Attorney's fees and litigation costs shall take priority over this lien.
- In the event of no recovery, the client remains responsible for the debt according to the terms of your funding agreement, but this office shall have no personal liability for the debt.

Please keep our office informed of the total payoff amount as the case progresses toward resolution.

Sincerely,

[Attorney Signature]
