RE: Notice of Non-Engagement

Dear [Guarantor Name],

Thank you for contacting [Firm/Company Name] regarding the possibility of acting as a third-party guarantor for the obligations of [Name of Borrower/Principal] in relation to [Description of Transaction/Matter].

This letter is to formally confirm that [Firm/Company Name] has decided not to accept you as a guarantor for this matter at this time. Consequently, we will not be entering into a guarantee agreement with you, and no legal or contractual relationship has been established between us.

Please be advised that we have not performed a detailed investigation into your financial standing, nor are we providing you with any legal or financial advice regarding the risks associated with acting as a guarantor. We recommend that you consult with your own independent legal counsel or financial advisor if you have questions regarding your rights or obligations in similar matters.

Our decision not to proceed should not be interpreted as a reflection of your creditworthiness or character. We are simply unable to move forward with this specific arrangement based on our current internal requirements and criteria.

Thank you for your interest and your time.

Sincerely,

[Your Name/Authorized Signature]
