Dear [Hiring Manager Name],

I am writing to express my interest in the [Job Title] position at [Agency Name]. Having successfully managed my own solo entertainment law practice for the past [Number] years, I am eager to transition my expertise into a collaborative agency environment. I have long admired [Agency Name]'s reputation for [mention a specific achievement or client of the agency] and believe my entrepreneurial background makes me a unique asset to your team.

As a solo practitioner, I have been responsible for every facet of legal representation for talent and production companies. My experience includes negotiating [mention specific contracts, e.g., licensing, distribution, or talent agreements], managing intellectual property portfolios, and providing strategic counsel on industry-specific regulations. Operating independently has required me to be highly disciplined, adaptable, and business-oriented-traits that allow me to provide high-level service to high-profile clients.

Key highlights of my practice include:

- Negotiating and closing [Number] of deals totaling over $[Amount].
- Developing a diverse client roster including [mention types of clients, e.g., actors, musicians, or writers].
- Navigating complex production legalities for independent projects.

While I have enjoyed the independence of solo practice, I am looking to leverage the resources and collective intelligence of a leading agency like [Agency Name]. I am confident that my ability to manage high-stakes negotiations and my established industry relationships will contribute to the continued success of your firm.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to the possibility of discussing how my background as a practitioner can benefit [Agency Name].

Sincerely,
