RE: Good Faith Notice of Intent to Cure Alleged Material Breach

Dear [Name of Recipient],

This letter serves as formal notice regarding the alleged material breach of the Partnership Agreement dated [Date of Agreement], as specified in your correspondence dated [Date of Breach Notice].

Pursuant to Section [Section Number] of the Partnership Agreement, and in the interest of upholding my fiduciary duties to the Firm and my partners, I am hereby providing this Good Faith Notice of Intent to Cure said breach.

I intend to take the following corrective actions to remedy the concerns raised:

- [Describe Action 1]
- [Describe Action 2]
- [Describe Action 3]

I anticipate that these remedial measures will be fully implemented and the breach cured by [Date], which falls within the [Number]-day cure period permitted under our agreement.

It is my sincere intent to resolve this matter amicably and to continue my commitment to the professional standards and operational success of [Law Firm Name]. I am available to meet with the Executive Committee or the Partners to discuss the progress of these curative efforts.

Please acknowledge receipt of this notice.

Sincerely,
