RE: Notice of Appeal and Good Faith Demand for Reconsideration
Claim Number: [Your Claim Number]
Date of Injury: [Date of Injury]
Employer: [Employer Name]

Dear [Claims Adjuster Name],

I am writing this letter as a formal appeal and a good faith demand for the reconsideration of my workers' compensation claim, which was denied on [Date of Denial Letter]. The stated reason for the denial was a "lack of evidence" to support the claim that my injury occurred within the course and scope of my employment.

I believe this denial is in error. To address the perceived lack of evidence, I am enclosing the following documentation to substantiate my claim:

- Detailed Medical Records: Attached are reports from [Doctor's Name] dated [Date], explicitly linking my diagnosis of [Injury/Condition] to the workplace incident.
- Witness Statements: Attached are written accounts from [Witness Name(s)] who observed the incident on [Date].
- Incident Report: A copy of the initial report filed with [Manager Name] on the date of the injury.
- Photographic/Video Evidence: [If applicable, describe photos of the scene or the injury].

This documentation provides clear and convincing evidence that my injury is work-related. I am making this demand in good faith, providing you with the opportunity to correct this denial based on the complete factual record now provided.

Please review these materials and provide a written response regarding the status of my claim within [Number, e.g., 10 or 14] business days. Failure to reconsider this denial in light of this evidence may result in further legal action and the filing of a formal petition with the [State Workers' Compensation Board/Commission].

I look forward to resolving this matter promptly.

Sincerely,
